From the President's Desk

Greetings HSA Members,

Thanks to all who helped with the December show at Laurel Lake. Four paintings were sold and we had many compliments on the show from the residents. It brightens their days to see the hall decorated with your beautiful paintings.

Our next show will be the 12th Midwinter Show at Laurel Lake. Please note carefully the criteria for entries. Also, keep in mind the pick up date and times. Once again we will need volunteers to help with the show.

The plaque we endowed in Lowell Smith's memory is now in place in the Hudson Library at last. You will see it in the gallery on the window sill by fourth bench. It looks very nice.

It will soon be time to nominate officers for the next year and we need volunteers to be a nominating committee. To paraphrase a former president, Ask not what HSA can do for you, ask what you can do for HSA.

If anyone did not get the message about our cancelled meeting on January 4, let me know. In bad weather, it is best to call me or Maggie if no one calls or emails you. Thanks to Ann Kah who organized the phone calls.

Be sure to keep us informed about your shows and awards and any other good news.

It has been suggested that we arrange to car-pool to art exhibits out of town. If you want to share in this activity let us know.

Thought for the day: Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success. -- Henry Ford

Lucy

12th Annual Member Show

It's time to start painting for our 12th annual Members Show (aka Midwinter Art Show). The prospectus is included with this issue of the newsletter. Each member may submit 2 pieces and our juror will select works for the show and award winners.

We are pleased to announce that our juror this year will be Lawrence Churski. He did a demo for us last fall and is well known for his watercolors and oils. You can drop off your pieces of art on Saturday, February 27, between 10:00 – 2:00 and pick them up March 27, between 10:00 – 2:00. We will hold a reception on Saturday, March 6 from 6:00 – 8:00 at which time the awards will be presented.

We hope everyone will be able to enter, so get busy!

Programs

- February 1: Jerry Zelinkas, OWS from Canton will do a watercolor demo
- February 15: Open Painting Session: Bring your own art materials and supplies to sketch/paint. Our Hudson model will wear colored clothing. This will be a fun and productive night.
- March 1: To be announced later
- March 15: Paul St. Denis, demo
- April 5: Jean Deemer, collage demo

Small Painting Holiday Show

Hudson Society of Artists held their first Holiday Small Art Show and Sale at Laurel Lake Retirement Community during the month of December.

Thirty-three of our members submitted 63 pieces of art. Laurel Lake was pleased to have our art on their walls during the month of December and several pieces were sold! Thank you to all who volunteered and participated.

Calls For Artists

Looking for a show to enter? Or a workshop? Art sale? There is a running list of "Calls for Entry" and shows on our blog.

<http://hudsonsocietyofartists.blogspot.com/>

To have your call for entry or show listed on the blog, contact Kathleen Harrington (KSHOhio@windstream.net) and Karen Koch (karengetsmail@yahoo.com).

Member News

Lucy Karlake:

I have two pairs of cross-country skis to give away. Call me if interested.

Don Getz

One of my paintings from the Cuyahoga Valley was selected for the 2009 PAINT THE PARKS 100. Painting can be seen at www.PaintAmerica.org/2009PaintTheParks.

Getz will be holding several plein air watercolor & drawing workshops in the Cuyahoga Valley this spring & summer. Schedule due out soon.

Judy Carducci

For anyone who loves the idea of painting in beautiful southern France - in what was Roman Gaul, with its walled villages, Roman bridges and cobblestones, farmers markets, vineyards and lovely rivers, caves with prehistoric art, and wonderful food.

Check out the full-page ad inside the back cover of the current issue of the Pastel Journal about my workshop June 1-10. Also go to my web site, www.judithcarducci.com, and click on the Workshops page. To see scenes of the area painted in prior workshops, go to the Gallery page. Non-painting Significant Others also love the experience. Painters work in the medium of their choice.

Jan Noden and Gretchen Bierbaum:

Jan and Gretchen have pieces in the show, Collage x 12, which features the work of 12 members of the Ohio Collage Society. The show is being held at Summit ArtSpace in Akron from January 28 - February 27. Gretchen is also leading a Collage Image Transfer workshop on February 20.

Karen Koch:

Karen has a sketchbook in the Sketchbook Library exhibit, which opens January 29 in Atlanta. The exhibit travels to Los Angeles, Chicago, St. Louis, and 2 locations in Brooklyn. Afterward, the sketchbooks will remain in a permanent library. The theme of her sketchbook - assigned by the committee -- is "Forgetting to call you back".

Barb Zohn

My husband John and I attended the Florian Lawton "Drawings and Watercolor's" exhibit at the Butler Museum in Youngstown. The show runs thru February and is well worth seeing. Also, we ran into Harriet Elson, Cathy Weiner, Susan Graham, Jack Mulhollen, and Don Getz.

Deanna Clucas

Deanna Clucas had a busy holiday season! She participated in the Women's Art League Show at the Peninsula Art Academy in November, as well as Santa's Holiday Wonderland at the John S. Knight Center. Two weekends in November, neighbor Judy Rickenbacher had a Christmas Open House and Sale with many invited artists to show and sell their work. Her work was also in the Winter Stardust 2009 Exhibit at the Log Cabin Gallery in Peninsula from November 20 to December 20 with a Holiday Open House on December 5. And, her display at Marie's Café on the square in Medina ran through January 4th.

Medina County Art League presents the "6th Annual Aquarius Exhibition" at the Medina County District Library, 3rd Floor, 210 South Broadway Street, Medina, Ohio. The exhibit runs February 5 - 26. Reception to be held Saturday, February 6 from 1:00 - 3:00 pm.

Gallery hours: Mon.-Thurs 9:00 am – 8:30 pm; Fri 9:00 am – 6:00 pm; Saturday 9:00 am – 5:00 pm Sun 1:00 – 5:00 pm. Admission is free.

Hilary Sheeter:

Hilary was artist of the month for November at the Akron Women's City Club. His exhibit included 50 watercolor paintings of places he has painted since 1980 – Cornwall (England), Italy, the US Southwest, Alaska, New England and the Carolina coast, and, of course, his beloved Hudson.

In February, he will teach watercolor classes on a 14-day Princess cruise. The ship departs from Barbados and visits 10 ports of call on the Caribbean islands and Jamaica.

Anyone interested in teaching on a cruise ship, contact Hilary. All the accommodations for two are the same as for the paying passengers. The only expenses are for travel to (and from) the port of embarkation. Great trip! Anyone?
