From the President's Desk

Greeting HSA Members!

I hope you're all staying warm as we wait out another Ohio winter. One good thing about winter is the HSA Midwinter Show at Laurel Lake. This year's show featured stellar member artwork. I hope you all had the opportunity to visit the show.

Thanks to all who responded to my questionnaire. The results are in! Most of you wanted to keep the meeting day/time/frequency the same. Many people wanted to see more critiques. In response to your requests, we have added a critique to our programs on May 5th at the HUDSON HIGH SCHOOL. Don Getz will do the honors.

To those of you who have expressed frustration at being "out of the info loop" when there is a program location change----we apologize, but email is the most effective way for any organization to keep in touch with its members. If someone would like to head a "phone brigade", I would be happy to notify that person of program changes and they can contact the members who don't have email. Call me at 330-528-3930 to volunteer.

Spring will soon be upon us and we will be able to emerge from our winter hibernation. I hope the warmer weather will inspire creativity and the desire to venture out to more HSA meetings and events!

Jane DiLullo

The Tenth Annual Mid-Winter Art Show

Hudson Society of Artists' Tenth Annual Mid-Winter Members Show reception was held on Saturday, February 8 at Laurel Lake Retirement Community.

Jack Molhullen, OWS, was the juror this year and the following artists received their awards:

- ❖ Best of Show – Judith B. Carducci
- ❖ First Place – Lori Hess
- ❖ Second Place – Harriet Elson
- ❖ Third Place – Al Krnc

Also there were seven Merit Awards: Susan Birgeles, Sandra Dennison, Ann Ferguson Kah, Lucy Karlake, Carl Musgrave, Diane Talmadge and Kitty Waybright.

Congratulations to the winners, and thank you to all the entrants for a wonderful show!

Program Schedule

March 17 – Dino Massaroni

Dino will be doing a demo for us.

Apr. 7 – Harriet Elson

Harriet, one of HSA's own, will talk about making art fun and sketchbooking. Her specialty is watercolor.

Apr. 21 – Marianne Hite

Marianne is a glass artist and will talk about her recent work. She is a popular instructor at the Peninsula Art Academy.

In Marianne's words:

"I love working with glass because I feel as though I'm painting with light as well as with color. Glass lends a certain quality to the light emitted through a piece that nothing else can duplicate."

May 5 – Don Getz – Critique

LOCATION CHANGE: Hudson High School

Don will be doing a critique of member's work. Please bring 1-2 artworks for him to review. Don's critiques are always popular and well attended, so he will review as many artworks as time permits.

May 19 – Mary Deutschman

Mary will be doing a demo for us.

June 2 – Spring Potluck – 7:00 PM

Bring a dish pass, and your own plate and utensils.

Visit www.hudsonsocietyofartists.com for updates.

Member News

Maggie McGrainor has had her artwork on display at the Hudson Library.

Kathleen Harrington is in the Artists of Rubber City show — the opening reception is March 14 at Summit Artspace. She is also having a show at Silver Lake Country Club starting April 18. And the MD Garage opens in April.

Rob Crombie participated in the Valley Art Center's annual benefit party, Get'Er Done, on March 15.

Hilary Sheeter is teaching on a cruise ship in March. The 12-day trip will go from Buenos Aires, Argentina, around Cape Horn and to Santiago, Chile.

A challenge with teaching on cruise ships is coping with unforeseen circumstances. On the last cruise, his classes were in a lounge with the bar open for business and he had to put his easel on the piano.

But the cruises are free for him and Beverly!

Saturday Painting

Join the Saturday Painters from 8:30 AM – noon at the Barlow Community Center.

A still life is provided to work from. Or, bring your own photo or paint the park through the windows.

Bring your own supplies and work in any medium.

There is no fee, and artists of all abilities are welcome.

When the weather warms up, they will be heading outside.

For details and painting locations, call Ann Kah at (330) 467-3416.
